

FOR BOYS (AGE 6 TO 17 YEARS)
AND GIRLS (AGE 12 TO 17 YEARS)

RANGER KIDS

Representing boys ages 6-8

This impressionable age group is foundational in providing the background and training for additional participation in the Royal Rangers programme. Its challenging and fun advancement system encourages boys to learn utilizing indoor and outdoor activities and games. The weekly lessons and objectives help reinforce godly principles in their daily lives.

DISCOVERY RANGERS

Representing boys ages 9-11

The Discovery Rangers programme features an exciting Premier Advancement System. In this system boys will learn through camping and non-camping activities. An emphasis is placed on learning at their own pace in a merit-based curriculum.

ADVENTURE RANGERS

Representing boys and girls ages 12-14

Adventure Rangers participate in more challenging camping and outdoor activities while emphasizing skill development, advanced camping, Junior Leadership Training, Frontiersmen Camping Fellowship (FCF), Bronze, Silver, and Gold medals with national recognition. The weekly meetings will encourage the rangers to learn and stay on course for the Gold Medal of Achievement—the highest award a Ranger can earn.

EXPEDITION RANGERS

Representing boys and girls ages 15-17

This is considered a high action-packed adventure trail in which the Expedition Ranger is further challenged by advanced camping and camp craft skill opportunities. These extreme activities offer rangers in this age group opportunities to become more self-reliant and develop confidence and a greater appreciation of God.
